46 NEW AND RETURNING MEMBERS!

Thanks to MARSP members like you, we welcomed 46 new and returning members between July and September (see p. 18). That's 46 more retirees who are accessing MARSP's nonpartisan news, strengthening our presence in Lansing, and helping spread the word about our work to the over 382,000 retired and active public school employees in Michigan's retirement system.

Let's keep this momentum going in 2025! Can we top 46 new members before the next VANGUARD? I believe we can! 🌟🎉

Les Nixon, Membership Committee Chair

How to Scan a QR code Using Your Smart Device

You may have seen these maze-like little squares—called Quick Response (QR) codes—in restaurants, commercials, and in MARSP's printed materials. QR codes are a quick and convenient way to access online information without typing a web address.

MARSP includes QR codes in VANGUARD to help you access information and resources, update your membership, register for events, or support our initiatives and advocacy.

Follow the instructions below to use the QR codes in this issue!

Open your camera and point your device at the QR code

Wait for the camera to detect and scan the code

A link or banner will appear once the code is recognized

Believe it or not...

Retirement health benefits can be as empowering as retirement itself.

At Priority Health, we believe retirement and health benefits should offer the same thing—freedom.

That's why our plans let you:

Travel the country
with quality coverage
from an HMO plan.

Choose the care
you need from the doctors you want.

See a specialist
without a referral from us.

Chapter Spotlight: Elections Bring Reconnection at the Washtenaw Chapter Candidate Forum

Candidate forums are routine election-season events for many MARSP chapters, offering members the chance to engage local candidates on key issues impacting retirees.

In a world dominated by digital communication, these events are also an opportunity for public school retirees to connect with friends, colleagues, and even former students.

On Friday, September 20, Washtenaw Chapter members gathered at a banquet hall to meet a few of their local candidates. Chapter leaders greeted attendees with name tags before guiding them to tables arranged by district. The thoughtful organization and friendly atmosphere (complete with food!) eased members and candidates into conversations that blended the personal and political.

After words of welcome, candidates took seats at a long table facing constituents and the forum officially began. They took turns answering pre-written questions about their backgrounds, platforms, and plans, including "What measures would you take to pay off our pension fund's debt while ensuring the protection of our health benefits?" During this question, one candidate, State Representative Morgan Foreman, suddenly paused mid-answer. Beaming, she waved to the back corner of the room.

"I see one of my former teachers in the room! How are you, Ms. Alter?"

Catherine Alter, a longtime MARSP member, responded with a wave as Rep. Foreman continued her remarks. After the forum, the two women navigated the crowd to embrace and catch up on the years since Foreman sat in Alter's classroom.

"You always hope your students take something valuable from your class," said Alter. "It's wonderful to see them pick up the torch and carry it forward."

The reunion between teacher and student was a small reminder of the lasting, multigenerational connections formed throughout a career in the public school system. When those roots extend to new contexts (such as a local candidate forum) they have the power to enrich and humanize our civic discourse.

Technology today provides incredible tools and platforms for connection, but there's something special about meeting face-to-face. MARSP encourages members to get involved in their community, not just to stay informed, but to enjoy the (re)connections that come with it. After all, Facebook "likes" don't compare to a heartfelt hug from a former student, you can't taste a cupcake through email (yet), and this written recap does not do Washtenaw's forum justice!

Catherine Alter and State Rep. Morgan Foreman reunite at Washtenaw Chapter's candidate forum on September 20.

MPSERS Healthcare and Public Act 127

Governor signs House Bill 5803 into law

On Oct. 3, 2024, the Governor signed House Bill 5803, now Public Act 127 of 2024, to support the FY2025 state budget. This legislation amends the MPSERS Act to direct excess funds from MPSERS healthcare (Other Post-Employment Benefits or OPEB) towards school operations. It also permanently lowers the payroll rate districts must contribute to MPSERS.

Future security for MPSERS Healthcare funding

As of the 2023 valuation, MPSERS healthcare funding stood at 126%. Recent estimates now place it closer to 140%, well above fully funded. We celebrate reaching full funding for MPSERS healthcare and look forward to continuing the work to achieve the same for the pension fund.

MARSP's top priority is protecting the current and future standing of MPSERS pension and healthcare funds. MARSP confirmed there are procedures to ensure the healthcare fund remains at or above 100% in the future. In the event of any new MPSERS healthcare or pension debt, the state will promptly address it through the School Aid Fund.

Your support powers MARSP's budget oversight each year

Once again, MARSP's presence in Lansing safeguarded retiree interests during this year's budget process. As we prepare for the coming year, your continued support enables us to monitor legislative developments and influence policy decisions. THANK YOU for partnering with MARSP to protect the rights of Michigan's current and future public school retirees!

I Scream, You Scream, We All Scream for Good, Affordable Healthcare Coverage

The Bottom Line
By Hess Bates, MARSP Treasurer
hessbates@att.net

"Uh oh...there's Sharon," I whispered to my wife, Speedy, as we made our way down the cereal aisle at Kroger. "And she's standing right by the shredded wheat!"

Sharon is an old "friend" I guess, though nemesis is probably the more appropriate word. She too is a retired teacher, but one who has resisted the repeated attempts that Speedy and I have made to bring her into the MARSP fold.

Crash!! Feigning innocence as I perused the shelves, I piloted our shopping cart into hers. "Oh, Sharon! I'm sorry, I didn't see ya there," as we stood, Sharon, Speedy, and I, in the otherwise empty aisle.

"How's things?" I asked with a cleverly disguised lack of sincerity. "Just great, Hess. How's MARSP?" she snarked back. "Fixed the retirement system's healthcare coverage yet?" This has always been Sharon's beef; she won't join MARSP because she complains that the MPSERS healthcare program is not as good as the MESSA coverage she had when she was teaching.

Speedy (who gets along with almost everyone...even me, sometimes), has tired of Sharon's schtick and steamed into the fray. "MARSP is just fine, thanks. Still working hard to protect benefits for all of us!"

With storm clouds gathering I switched to diplomatic mode. "You know, Sharon, what we have through MPSERS isn't perfect, but we've made huge strides. Back in 2017, MARSP was instrumental in stopping legislation that almost gutted the defined benefit pension and healthcare programs. If that had passed, the whole system would've changed drastically, and for the worse. Thanks to the collective efforts of retirees like us, we protected the core of what so many depend on."

Sharon shrugged, "It doesn't matter anyway- I'm on Bob's insurance now." Bob is Sharon's smooth, auto-exec husband, whose Rolex shine would allow reading newsprint on a dark night.

"I'm glad you have options; not everyone does," I pointed out. "My neighbor, for instance, retired from Borg-Warner and has struggled to find decent coverage. He's seeing policies offered with $15,000 to $20,000 out-of-pocket maximums, amounts that make such policies pay only for catastrophic costs. MPSERS retirees are in a much better position. Our coverage has much lower out-of-pocket limits, which helps with routine medical visits and protects us from financial ruin when serious health issues arise."

I continued, "Plus, and this is really important, with so many enrolled in MPSERS plans, retirees enjoy significant discounts on medical costs. My doctors billed BC/BS Medicare Advantage $12,148 in 2023, but thanks to the negotiated rates through MPSERS, I only had to pay $1,148. Those bills would've been overwhelming were it not for the coverage and discounts that MPSERS provides. Compared to someone like my neighbor, MPSERS's group coverages save retirees thousands of dollars on medical bills each year."

Statement Date: December 2023		HESTON BATES III		Member ID: XXXX
TOTALS for medical and hospital claims	Amount providers have billed the plan	Total cost (amount the plan has approved)	Plan's share	Your share
Totals for 2023 (all claims processed through December 31, 2023 )	$12,147.79	$4,193.05	$3,044.85	$1,148.20

I could see the wheels turning in Sharon's eyes. Speedy saw this too and jumped in: "And MARSP understands that effective advocacy means challenging the status quo. With many MPSERS retirees relying on modest pensions and Social Security incomes, MARSP pursues every opportunity to lower healthcare costs and improve benefits."

I nodded thinking of MARSP's founding members back in 1951. At the time, both private companies and public employers refused to offer affordable healthcare coverage to older Americans. "Bob"-less, those retirees banded together and reshaped the national conversation on aging and retirement. The Bottom Line for MARSP's founders remains unchanged for us today. I turned my attention back to Sharon...

"We need retirees like us coming together to ensure we all get the benefits we deserve – now and in the future. MARSP is our best tool for influencing MPSERS, and every new member makes MARSP more effective."

Sharon glanced at her watch. "I'll think about it, but now I've got to run – Bob's waiting." She quickly steered off, her parting words leaving us with at least a faint glimmer of hope.

As Speedy and I continued our trip through the store we entertained the thought of gifting Sharon a MARSP membership.

"Maybe she'll finally come around," Speedy said as we turned down the frozen food aisle.

"One can dream," I replied, casually sliding three containers of double fudge, chocolate chip Breyers into the cart and tucking them beneath the baby carrots and broccoli.

Speedy smirked and reached in after me. "One sure can."

Enrichment Through Exploration

MARSP Traveler: Bill Richardson

Name: Bill Richardson

Age: 84

Years in public education: 33

Role in public education: English teacher,
Pontiac Central High School; Oakland University

Joining MARSP: Bill joined MARSP based on recommendations from his trusted union representatives.

Travel experience: Bill's passion for travel began with a transformative experience in 1988, when he joined Oakland University's Summer English Language Institute in Guizhou Province, China. "I'd never been abroad before – what an experience that was! There can be a lot of uncertainty when traveling abroad, but I went with three awesome and well-traveled colleagues, and they were a big help."

For the next 27 years, Bill continued to work with the program, making regular trips to China. In retirement, he explored the world with his brother and a close friend. After his travel companions passed and his trusted travel agency was sold, Bill took a hiatus from travel. However, MARSP provided an opportunity to rekindle his passion for exploration, and he hasn't looked back.

Traveling with MARSP: Bill chooses the MARSP Travel Program for the well-organized itineraries, professional guides, and camaraderie of fellow MARSP members. To date, he's toured the National Parks of the U.S., Alaska, and Hawaii with MARSP. He's visiting Iceland in November 2024 – his fourth journey and first international trip with MARSP!

Travel style: Bill prefers a balance of activity and leisure when he travels. He appreciates that MARSP's tours offer a mix of guided excursions and free time to follow his curiosities -- or take a nap!

Group travel: Bill enjoys group travel, especially with MARSP, for the shared experiences that give way to lasting friendships. "People tend to be more open and social on vacation because they're away from everything they know and all their responsibilities. For the most part, it's all new. And that lends itself to more openness and more "wow" moments. I can always turn to someone and share in the beauty of what's out there." Bill also finds that having trusted travel companions helps ease stress in unfamiliar places or situations.

"There are times that I take things in and miss the photo. That's just the way it is. You're not going to get it all. The question is: What are you going to get?"

---

Travel philosophy: Bill views every journey as a way to broaden his understanding of the world and gain new perspectives. He sees travel as a gateway to continued personal growth and discovery. "Open up, have fun, and expect the unexpected -- perhaps even discomfort. If you try to control too much, you'll end up disappointed. With MARSP, you've always got a group of people to help you navigate and make the most of the experience."

Incorporating hobbies and interests into travel: Bill finds his passion for photography adds another dimension of appreciation to travel. He tries to be intentional and likes to observe his surroundings before snapping any photos. "With phones, everyone is a photographer. I see people get off the tour bus and immediately take photos. My advice: when you go off somewhere, capture the scene with your eyes first. Take it all in. See what's around you and decide what you really want to remember. There are times that I take things in and miss the photo. That's just the way it is. You're not going to get it all. The question is: What are you going to get?"

Looking ahead: Bill has long dreamed of visiting Iceland and he'll finally do so with MARSP this November. He is excited to photograph the breathtaking waterfalls and stunning natural landscapes.

He hopes to one day visit Patagonia and Antarctica.

Updates to MPSERS Health Plan Coverage for 2025

All changes are effective on January 1, 2025.

Understanding your coverage helps you take full advantage of available services and helps MARSP tailor advocacy efforts to address your concerns. There are many ways for public school retirees to learn about changes to MPSERS healthcare plans in 2025.

Medicare Members

Medical: Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan

OptumRx.com/Enroll/MPSER

The full amount members pay for non-preferred medications will apply toward the $1,750 out-of-pocket maximum.

Non-Medicare Members

Medical: Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan

800-422-9146

BCBSM.com/MPERS

The annual deductible will be applied before coinsurance.

The emergency room copay will increase to $140 per visit. The copay applies after the annual deductible and coinsurance maximum are met for the year. Until then, the deductible and 10% coinsurance apply. The copay will be waived if admitted to the hospital within 72 hours.

Prescription: Optum Rx

855-577-6517

OptumRx.com/Enroll/MPSER

A copay card solution will be implemented for copay cards used on medications dispensed through Optum Rx Home Delivery. To more accurately reflect true out-of-pocket costs, members will receive credit toward their out-of-pocket maximum for the amount of a drug cost actually paid out of pocket.

Prescription drug update: The patents on some brand-name drugs have expired or are set to expire, which means members will be able to save by using the generic equivalents. Your pharmacist will automatically dispense the generic on new or refilled prescriptions for these drugs:

Brand name	Generic name	Indication/use	Generic availability

PREPARING AN E.R. TO-GO BAG

Why it's important and how to get started.

Emergencies can happen anytime and without warning. When unexpected health issues arise, many people find themselves scrambling to gather important items they may need for a trip to the hospital. Preparing an Emergency Room To-Go Bag is a small step that offers major relief in urgent situations.

Why Prepare an ER To-Go Bag?

Readiness for unplanned events: Every second counts in a health emergency. Preparing a bag of essential items ahead of time gets you that much closer to medical attention.

Reduced stress: Decisions and organization are harder in high-pressure situations. By considering your needs and preparing an ER bag in advance, you eliminate last-minute decisions and are better equipped to communicate with medical professionals.

Improved comfort and care: Hospital visits can be lengthy. Having your essentials at hand—like medications, important documents, and personal comfort items—can enhance your overall experience.

What to Include in Your ER To-Go Bag

When preparing an ER to-go bag, include items that meet your basic needs and support communication with healthcare providers. Here's a checklist of essential items:

- ☐ Medical information: Include a current list of your medications, allergies, medical history, and emergency contacts. Make sure this list is easily accessible.
- ☐ Personal identification and insurance cards: Keep copies of your photo ID and health insurance information in the bag.
- ☐ Legal documents: Advance directives, such as a living will or durable power of attorney for health care.
- ☐ Medication: Pack a few days' supply of your essential medications, along with a list of dosages and schedules.
- ☐ Comfort items: Hospital visits can involve a lot of waiting. Include a small blanket, socks, and anything that brings you comfort, like a favorite book or puzzle.

- ☐ Snacks and water: Depending on the nature of your emergency, you may need a snack while waiting for care or test results. Pack easy-to-eat snacks and a water bottle.
- ☐ Chargers for electronics: Don't forget phone and device chargers. Staying in touch with family members or accessing medical information online might be necessary.
- ☐ Spare clothing and toiletries: Include a change of clothes, travel-sized toiletries, and personal hygiene products.
- ☐ Notebook and pen: Use these to jot down questions, information, and instructions from medical professionals.

Keeping Your Bag Ready

Regular Updates: Review and refresh your bag every few months.

Easy Access: Store your bag in a designated spot where you can easily grab it, like near your front door or in a coat closet.

VOLUNTARY BENEFIT DEFENSE FUND (VBDF) CONTRIBUTIONS

June 1 - August 31, 2024

The MARSP Board of Directors expresses SINCERE thanks to the members and chapters listed here for their contributions to the MARSP VBDF. The fund will be used to initiate and participate in legal battles that may be necessary to protect Michigan school retirees' benefits over the next few years.

To date the fund has been used to educate legislators regarding defined contribution and graded premium insurance subsidy legislation; to research and investigate defined contribution and other plans in other states; to purchase the software needed to provide an effective grassroots network; to provide written information to legislators; and other activities necessary to the protection of school retiree benefits.

Dear Member,

Each year, MARSP's loyal members look forward to the fall issue of VANGUARD, which covers updates to MPSEERS health insurance plans for the coming year. You'll find a breakdown of these changes (effective January 1, 2025) on p. 14. To learn about the changes directly from MPSEERS insurance representatives, I invite you to attend MARSP's virtual Member Insurance Update on December 10, 2024 (more info on p. 7). Understanding your coverage is key to making the most of your benefits—and it helps shape MARSP's advocacy efforts to better serve you!

Also on p. 7, you'll find a powerful story from our Treasurer, Hess Bates, about the important role MARSP members play in securing affordable health insurance for ALL public school retirees.

On p. 18, we celebrate those who joined or renewed between July and September, 2024 (46 total!!). I want to echo Membership Committee Chair, Les Nixon, in asking you to help us continue growing MARSP's membership in 2025. Share MARSP's impact, opportunities, and resources with your active and retired public school network. Enroll your MPSEERS beneficiary as a member!

As we enter a season of giving and reflection, please also consider donating to one of MARSP or the Foundation's funds in honor of a fellow public school employee or retiree who inspires you.

Until next year, thank you for being part of the MARSP community and for supporting dignity in retirement for public school employees!

Sincerely,

Sue Jakubiak
MARSP President

P.S. If you find this issue helpful, share it with your friends and encourage them to join MARSP to receive their own copies of VANGUARD, published four times a year.
